1 THE CLERK: Allen Robinson.

2 THE COURT: Mr. Allen Robinson?

3 THE DEFENDANT: Yes, ma'am.

4 MR. PIET: For the record Charles Piet on behalf of 5 Mr. Robinson. We have a trial date set for March 8, with 6 subpoenas for jury trial.

7 THE COURT: Holding this over for final status.
8 Any information, State, that your witnesses are going to 9 be unavailable?

10 MR. CARTER: No, I do not have any information that
11 they will be unavailable.

12 I did want to clarify for the record that
13 the defendant is not using an affirmative defense.

14 MR. PIET: That's correct.

15 THE COURT: Do you have an answer on file, counsel?

16 MR. PIET: I believe there's an answer on file.

17 MR. CARTER: There is, judge. Just says the 18 defendant will assert all defenses available to him.

19 THE COURT: So there are no affirmative defenses,
20 it's a reasonable --

21 MR. PIET: That's correct.

22 THE COURT: Okay. Any motions in limine that we 23 can address today or anything that's going to be out of 24 the ordinary beyond the motions to exclude or anything?

1 MR. CARTER: I do not have any motion in limine at
2 this time. I probably will file just a general one
3 later. Other than that, I don't perceive.

4 THE COURT: Not knowing the facts of the case, I
5 just don't want to be in the position where the jury is
6 in the hallway and I get some kind of complicated motion
7 in limine and parties wanted to indicate they want to
8 argue and have case law. As long as the parties have 9 nothing like that.

10 We can hold it over March 8th and do the
11 regular motions in limine on that date.

12 MR. PIET: That's fine.

13 THE COURT: Hold it over by agreement, 3-8-11 for 14 indicated jury. See you back here on that date.
